

Questions for Fellowship

Questions for Sharpening (Prov. 27:17), Stirring up to Love and Good Deeds, Encouragement, (Heb. 10:24-25) admonishing (1 Thess. 5:14) Caring for each other / Bearing Burdens (Gal. 6:2)

Feel the freedom to make these your own. Put them in your own words. These questions just push us to talk about things that are beyond the everyday, cliché level. They get more at who we really are.

Examples of Specific Spiritual Questions

- What has God taught you in the word lately?
- What do you feel like He is teaching you about yourself, Himself, how you treat others?
- When was the last time you really felt humbled by who God is and who you are?
- What is the hardest thing for you to trust God for or about right now?
- What attribute of God have you most recently encountered and how has it affected you?
- How close do you currently feel to God? If far away, what do you think the cause is?
- What lie would you say you believe on a consistent basis about yourself, or about God?
- What do you feel like God is really changing about you right now? - How are you being shaped / chiseled?
- What promise do you find yourself clinging to the most often and why?
- What is the most significant thing you've learned since becoming a Christian?
- How would you say you are applying the gospel in a new way lately?
- What have you learned about the gospel lately?
- What part of the gospel is too good to be true to you?
- Have you felt a sense of gospel astonishment in the last week or so?
- What is your most serious and current struggle?
- What can we pray for each other about?
- (Depending on the level of your relationship with the person, ask them about things that both of you may be going through & can share stories, struggles, disagreements, new discoveries, etc)

"Heart" Questions that help you get to know a person better

- What would your perfect day consist of?
- What is your favorite childhood memory that has shaped you the most?
- Who are 2-3 people who have influenced you in your life the most?
- What are your greatest sources of joy?
- What is your greatest fear?
- What do you truly value in a friend?
- What were you like in high school?
- If you could be anyone else, who would you be?
- What motivates you?
- Do you more consistently protect yourself from other's opinion, or open yourself up and be vulnerable?
- What are you really passionate about?
- What do you see yourself doing in 10 years?
- What is the worst thing anyone could ever say about you?
- Who would you say you really are? (Beneath the cliché level that everyone sees)